

Throw Down the Cloaks!

The more followers you attract, the further you can move...

Finalist

Cardboard Edison
2021 Design
Contest

Overview

You're resolved to spruce up the neighbourhood. Yet nothing will coax you into sullyng your delicate slippers in the filth of the street. Instead you call upon your loyal followers to lay down your old cloaks in the mud for you to walk upon.

The more you build, the more followers you'll attract and the quicker you'll move around the city - accelerating your plan to become the most powerful noble.

3-4
players

30
mins

Age
8+

Components

- 40 wooden cloaks
- 4 nobles
- 60 houses
- 20 monuments
- 9 board tiles
- 4 player boards
- 4 neutral houses
- 9 action cards

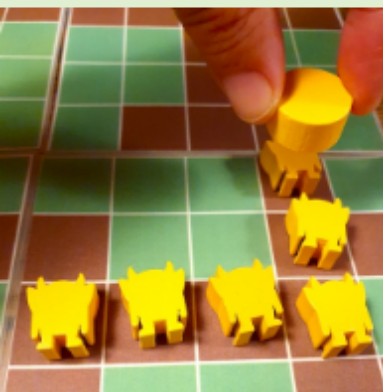

Features

Innovative movement
around a modular board

High player interaction

Opponent-dependent area control

How to Play

Move your followers' coats in a snake. Then your noble may walk on the coats to a new location.

Build houses to gain influence. Influence gains you new followers.

If you get blocked in, sacrifice a follower to use a special action.

Build monuments near your houses and those of your opponents to gain victory points.

DESIGNER: Ellie Dix

CONTACT: ellie@thedarkimp.com